Women’s Foundation for a Greater Memphis Appoints New Officer and Board Members
2011-2012 Board of Directors continue their leadership of creating social change

Memphis, TN – The Women’s Foundation for a Greater Memphis (WFGM) has named its 2011-2012 Board of Directors. This year, WFGM will continue to extend its reach and include women of diverse backgrounds and industries from the Greater Memphis area on its board. The WFGM serves the Memphis community by promoting economic self-sufficiency for women and families in Memphis. The Foundation’s impact will continue to broaden with the addition of the new board members.

The following women have been appointed to the 2011-2012 WFGM Board of Directors:

- Meri Armour, President/CEO, Le Bonheur Children’s Medical Center
- Toni L. Boland, Sustainable Business and Innovation Specialist, NIKE
- Carolyn Hardy, President/CEO, Chism Hardy Enterprises, LLC
- Gretchen W. McLennon, Program Officer, Hyde Family Foundations
- Nisha Powers, Majority Owner/President, Powers Hill Design, LLC
- Stacie Waddell, Philanthropist

In addition, Regina Walker, Senior Vice President of the United Way of the Mid-South has been named Vice Chair.

Chair of the Board, Becky Jones West of WestRogers Strategic Communications, said “The talent and expertise of these women will ensure the organization continues to benefit from a plethora of experiences and insights. By engaging a new slate of women leaders, the Foundation will continue to cast our vision with boldness, courage and innovation while driving the social change necessary to transform Memphis. When women advance, so do their families and communities.”
