Women’s Foundation for a Greater Memphis Welcomes new Development Associate

The Women’s Foundation for a Greater Memphis (WFGM) is pleased to announce Marlon Peace as the new Development Associate. In this role, Peace will provide input with the development strategy and processes of WFGM.

“As a native of Memphis I am excited to be part of the innovative and creative team at the Women’s Foundation,” Peace said. “This position has allowed me to meet new people and contribute daily to make a positive impact on my city.”

Peace gained experience with data entry as an intern with Universal Commercial, a real estate brokerage and consulting firm and in the non-profit field as an AmeriCorps Vista Volunteer at WFGM. Volunteers in this program work at non-profits and public agencies in some of the country’s poorest rural and urban areas.

When he’s not referencing the great philosophers to ponder the mysteries of the universe, Peace goes to the movies and studies for his bachelors in business management at LeMoyne-Owen College.

Peace can be reached at 901-578-9346 or marlonpeace@wfgm.org.

###

Founded in 1995, The Women’s Foundation for a Greater Memphis (WFGM) is a 501 (C)(3) non-profit organization focused on improving the wellbeing of more than 17,000 economically vulnerable women and their families annually through philanthropy and grant making initiatives. The mission of the Women’s Foundation for a Greater Memphis is to encourage philanthropy, foster leadership among women, and support programs that enable women and children to reach their full potential. For more information please visit wfgm.org.